NO MORE RIOTING IN THE NAME OF OUR LITTLE GIRL

Parents' heartfelt message at funeral of Southport victim as they pay tribute to their 'beloved angel'

THE parents of one of the Southport victims have called for an end to the violent riots that followed her death.

The message was delivered on their behalf yesterday at the funeral of Alice da Silva Aguiar, who was killed at a holiday club last month.

Describing the nine-year-old as their 'beloved angel', her parents Sergio and Alexandra said: 'Keep dancing. Mummy and Daddy will always, always love you.'

Addressing mourners on their behalf, the Chief Constable of Merseyside Police told rioters to 'hang their heads in shame' after days of unrest. Speaking
