

The mind-boggling facts behind Spencer's record-breaking 30 desert marathons in 30 days

SEE PAGES 20-22

Fears of 5p a litre rise as Chancellor and PM refuse to rule out string of tax raids

MOTORISTS FACE FUEL HIKE UNDER STARMER'S SQUEEZE

DRIVERS have been warned to brace for a multi-billion pound fuel duty raid.

Labour refused to rule out using motorists to balance the

From David Churchill in London and Harriet Line in Berlin

books yesterday as it appeared to row back on its pledge not to hike taxes for 'working people'.

Chancellor Rachel Reeves also left the door open for a string of wealth levies – stoking speculation she could increase inheritance or capital gains taxes.

Motoring groups said Ms Reeves would have 'no option' but to raise

Turn to Page 2

The next big thing: Jenna Ortega dazzles in Venice

SEE PAGE 13

