

For breaking US election news and expert analysis go to dailymail.co.uk

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

■ As nation decides, experts say result is 'basically a coin toss'

■ Trump warns of 'massive cheating' across Philadelphia

■ Washington locks down with US bracing itself for civil unrest

Judgment day: Donald Trump and wife Melania in Florida yesterday

TINDERBOX AMERICA ON KNIFE EDGE

AMERICA held its breath last night as polls closed across the country.

After a chaotic and bitterly

From Ryan Hooper in London and Emily Goodin in Washington fought presidential campaign, Donald Trump and Kamala

Harris were neck and neck as tens of millions cast their ballots.

Experts said the contest was a 'coin toss'. As Washington DC braced itself for unrest, Republican Mr Trump posted on his Truth Social platform that there was 'a lot of talk about massive cheating in Philadelphia'.

Almost immediately, the city's

Turn to Page 4

SEE PAGES 4-7