A comeback to Trump all comebacks!

★ In the end it wasn't even close – it was a thumping win

★ Liberals in U.S. and Britain left bewildered and tearful

★ It's a nightmare for Starmer and his Donald-loathing Cabinet

DONALD Trump sent shockwaves around the world yesterday after the biggest comeback in political history.

In a stunning victory which plunged Sir Keir Starmer into a diplomatic 'nightmare', Mr Trump confounded opinion polls which had predicted the tightest-ever race for the White House. Last night he was on course to thrash Vice-President Kamala Harris by more than five million votes.

Liberals and luvvies on both sides of the Atlantic went into meltdown as Mr Trump became only the second ousted president in US history to return to the White House for a second term. Addressing delirious supporters yesterday, he pledged to 'make America great again' and credited divine intervention for dodging a sniper's bullet.

'God spared my life for a reason,' he
