

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

Win the ultimate dream holiday

Worth
£15,000

Online access, Mail account and Unique Number required. Terms apply

SEE PAGE 30

Cape Town ++ Safari adventure ++ Johannesburg ++ Mauritius

SOUTHPORT HORROR

STABBING SUSPECT WAS A STAR FOR BBC CHILDREN IN NEED

AS DOCTOR WHO IN FRONT OF TARDIS

By James Fielding, Cameron Charters
and Richard Marsden

THE suspect in the Southport murders fronted a campaign for the BBC's Children in Need.

A video unearthed by the Mail shows Axel Rudakubana, then aged 11 and dressed as Doctor Who, urging the nation to get involved with fundraising.

On Monday, 17-year-old Rudakubana is alleged to have launched a knife attack at a Taylor Swift-themed dance event, leaving three young girls dead.

The killings sparked outrage fuelled by misinformation swirling on social media.

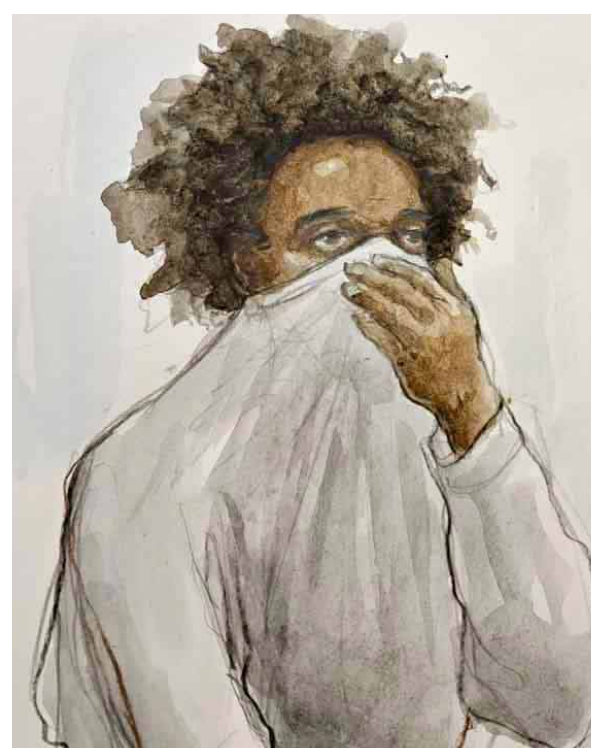

As police warned of far-Right violence, chaos erupted last night when mobs torched cars and a police station in Sunderland. Mosques were also attacked in the city and in Liverpool.

By yesterday evening, rallies had been organised in nearly 40 towns and cities – from Dover to Glasgow and Belfast – putting the police on high alert and communities on edge.

Protesters have already clashed with police in ugly scenes this week.

In Southport, less than two hours after a vigil in memory of those killed, a mob pelted a

Turn to Page 6

AS SEEN IN COURT THIS WEEK