Chief News Editor

President His Highness Shaikh Mohammad Bin Zayed Al Nahyan yesterday led the funeral prayer for the late Shaikh Tahnoun Bin Mohammad Al Nahyan at the Shaikh Sultan Bin Zayed the First Mosque in Abu Dhabi. Also performing the prayer were His Highness Shaikh Saud Bin Saqr Al Qasimi, Supreme Council Member and Ruler of Ras Al Khaimah, and Shaikh Mohammad Bin Saud Bin Saqr Al Qasimi, Crown Prince of Ras Al Khaimah, in addition to shaikhs of the Al Nahyan family, the late Shaikh Tahnoun Bin Mohammed's siblings, his children, and other worshippers. Shaikh Mohammad and the shaikhs carried the late Shaikh Tahnoun Bin Mohammad's body to his final resting place in Al Bateen Cemetery in Abu Dhabi. The President directed mosques across the country to perform funeral prayer for the late Shaikh Tahnoun Bin Mohammad after Al Asr prayer. Shaikh Tahnoun Bin Mohammad, the Ruler's Representative in Al Ain, passed away on Wednesday at the age of 82. Towering figure Shaikh Tahnoun Bin Mohammad was a towering figure on the national stage, with a distinguished career devoted to serving the nation. He had the privilege of accompanying the nation's founding father, the late Shaikh Zayed Bin Sultan Al Nahyan, and benefited greatly from his practical wisdom and knowledge. Shaikh Zayed entrusted him with the responsibility of representing the government in the Al Ain region. SEE ALSO P4

No rain alert today as weather stabilises

MOST SCHOOLS TO CONTINUE WITH DISTANCE LEARNING

DUBAI
BY SHARMILA DHAL

The UAE's tryst with "unstable weather" yesterday thankfully passed off without any major incident, even as the authorities coped with the storm with due preparedness. Although residents woke up to the sound of howling winds and heavy rains in the wee hours of the day, the intensity of the storm was not so severe, much to their relief. Rains did pound different parts of the emirates through the morning but by the afternoon, the skies began to clear, with the sun shining forth, bright and reassuring. So what will the weather be like over the next couple of days? It's largely good news as weathermen say they are not expecting any rains in the coastal parts of Abu Dhabi, Dubai, Sharjah and Ajman. Only some internal parts of the country and areas in the south and east will see overcast skies, with a chance of light to moderate rains. Back to office Meanwhile, most schools will continue with distance learning for the second day today, as recommended by the authorities on Tuesday. But office-goers will likely be back at their workplaces, both government and private. Going forward, residents will also need to update themselves on the various services they wish to avail, following their temporary suspension or change in timings in view of yesterday's rains. This applies not just to air, Metro, marine and bus transport, but also health and other public services. Regular checks on the social media channels of the authorities concerned have been advised in order to stay abreast with the updates. Now, what was the impact of yesterday's rains and how did the UAE cope with the storm — its second in less than a month after it witnessed its heaviest rainfall in 75 years on April 16 — is a story by itself. FOR DETAILS, SEE P2-3
