TORIES TRAIL LABOUR ON DEFENCE, TAX, MIGRATION... EVEN BREXIT

But exclusive poll for Mail finds 45 per cent still DON'T want a Starmer government

THE Tories trail Labour on every major political issue, a landmark poll has found.

Sir Keir Starmer's party enjoys a commanding lead over the Conservatives on the issues of most concern to voters, including a 35-point advantage on the NHS.

And in a major wake-up call for Rishi Sunak, the Conservatives also lag behind Labour in a string of traditional Tory policy areas, including defence, tax, immigration – and even Brexit.

The survey of more than 5,400 voters was conducted by former Tory treasurer Lord Ashcroft.

It reveals that 45 per cent of the public do not want a Labour government, but its findings will
