

How to get Ozempic-style weight loss without the weekly jabs – by a top nutritionist

INSPIRE: STARTS PAGE 27

CASH FOR CARE JOBS VISA SCAM

Undercover Mail probe finds rogue fixers are charging unqualified migrants up to £20,000 for work permits to fill vacancies

VULNERABLE care residents are being looked after by unqualified migrants as rogue operators exploit Home Office loopholes, a Mail investigation shows. Scant checks in the desper-

Daily Mail INVESTIGATIONS UNIT

Isaan Khan, Tom Kelly and Kate Pickles

ate bid to fill huge vacancies mean untrained and over-worked staff, sometimes barely able to speak English, are left caring for the elderly in the under-strain sector.

Our probe into the 'cash for care jobs scandal' found some outfits charge overseas applicants 'work finder fees' of up to £20,000 to help them get a visa allowing them to come – and stay – here.

One 'adviser', a Baptist minister, told an undercover reporter
Turn to Page 6

Pricey: Kim Kardashian – and dress tag
– yesterday

Forget to take the label off, Kim?

PARIS
FASHION
PAGE 11