spending would rise to 2.5 per cent of GDP by the end of the decade, securing the UK's place as 'by far the largest defence power in Europe'.

It is a major victory for the Mail's

Don't Leave Britain Defenceless Campaign, which was launched after military spending missed out in last month's budget. It also draws a potential election dividing line with Labour.

Mr Sunak warned the world faces the most 'volatile and dangerous' situation in decades, with an 'axis' of adversaries including Russia, China, Iran and North
