3,035 fake Emiratisation attempts uncovered

DUBAI
Gulf News Report

More than 3,000 UAE nationals were hired in cases of fake Emiratisation in attempts to circumvent Emiratisation targets of private companies, the Ministry of Human Resources and Emiratisation (MoHRE) revealed yesterday.

Taking to social media, the Ministry announced that their inspection system detected 1,934 private establishments that hired 3,035 UAE citizens in fake Emiratisation schemes, from mid-2022 till Tuesday.

Up to Dh500,000 fine

Actions taken against the violating establishments included imposing a fine ranging from Dh20,000 to Dh500,000 for each case. Depending on the severity of the violation, the action also included referral to the Public Prosecution.

Meanwhile, over 22,000 private establishments hired Emiratis in compliance with Emiratisation policies.

"We encourage the public to report any practices conflicting with Emiratisation policies and regulations by reaching out to our call centre at 600590000 or through the Ministry's smart app and website," MoHRE said.

President, Jordan King call for ceasefire in Gaza and Lebanon

LEADERS EMPHASISE NEED TO PREVENT CONFLICTS FROM ESCALATING FURTHER

ABU DHABI

President His Highness Shaikh Mohammad Bin Zayed Al Nahyan met with Jordan's King Abdullah II in Abu Dhabi yesterday.

The two leaders reviewed a number of regional and international issues, with a focus on developments in the Middle East, including the situation in Gaza and Lebanon.

Both leaders underscored the importance of intensifying efforts to secure a ceasefire in Gaza and Lebanon, ensuring full protection for civilians in accordance with international humanitarian law, and providing humanitarian support to those affected. They reiterated the UAE and Jordan's steadfast position in supporting Lebanon's unity, sovereignty, and territorial integrity while expressing solidarity with the Lebanese people.

Regional peace

The leaders emphasised the need to prevent conflict in the Middle East from escalating further, as it poses a threat to the region's security and stability. They also stressed the importance of establishing a clear path towards a just, comprehensive, and lasting peace based on a two-state solution that guarantees security and stability for all.

The leaders also discussed their fraternal relations and cooperation, particularly in developmental areas and other fields aimed at enhancing the comprehensive economic partnership between the two nations at all levels.

Additionally, both sides reaffirmed their mutual commitment to maintaining fraternal consultations on issues of shared interest, particularly in light of the challenges the region is currently facing.

The meeting took place during King Abdullah II's visit to the UAE capital as part of a brotherly visit to the country.

Earlier in the day, King Abdullah II arrived in the UAE, where he was received at Al Bateen Airport by the UAE President, along with Shaikh Abdullah Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs, Shaikh Hamdan Bin Mohammad Bin Zayed Al Nahyan, Deputy Chairman of the Presidential Court for Special Affairs, Shaikh Mohammad Bin Hamad Bin Tahnoun Al Nahyan, Advisor for Special Affairs at the Ministry of Presidential Court; Humaid Obaid Abu Shabas, Chairman of the UAE Accountability Authority, Khaldoon Khalifa Al Mubarak, Chairman of the Executive Affairs Authority, and a number of senior officials.

Accompanying King Abdullah II were Prime Minister Dr Jaafar Hassan, Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Ayman Safadi, and several senior officials.
