

Why many women are happy to be in a SEXLESS MARRIAGE

INSPIRE: STARTS ON PAGE 27

Daily

dailymail.co.uk

Mail

£1.10 85p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

MONDAY, DECEMBER 2, 2024

As MasterChef star faces furious backlash for blaming furore on 'middle-class women of a certain age', his accusers reveal how...

BBC WAS WARNED 4 TIMES ABOUT WALLACE

THE BBC allowed Gregg Wallace to remain on air despite at least four complaints being made against him.

The MasterChef host has been

By Paul Revoir
and Mary O'Connor

the subject of a growing slew of allegations about inappropriate behaviour on set.

Last night BBC bosses were under mounting pressure to explain why they did not act sooner. And the presenter yesterday faced a further backlash after dismissing his accusers as a 'handful of middle-class women of a certain age'.

A former culture secretary said the controversy was a test for the

Turn to Page 6

Lily in London for Elton's shock eyesight news

SEE PAGE THREE

