MoS investigation uncovers secret plan by Just Stop Oil to cause nationwide chaos and sabotage General Election

ECO ZEALOTS IN PLOT TO 'OCCUPY HOMES OF MPs'

EXCLUSIVE

MAIL INVESTIGATIONS UNIT

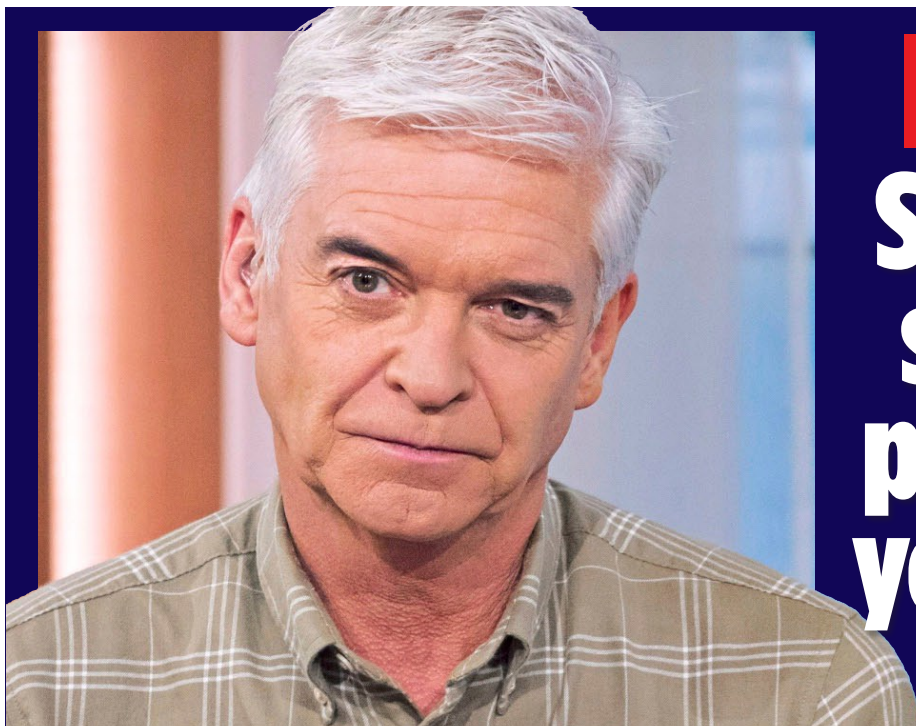

MILITANT Just Stop Oil activists are plotting a sinister nationwide blitz to 'occupy' MPs' homes ahead of the General Election, a Mail on Sunday investigation has found.

Hardcore eco-zealots are also planning to target politicians' offices and disrupt speeches and party conferences in a chilling campaign of intimidation and harassment that strikes at the heart of the democratic process.

Protesters describe their plans as a 'total departure' from previous operations, and told an undercover reporter they were ready to look a 'bit loony' in their flagrant attempt to 'get attention' for their cause.

The revelation comes amid growing fears for the safety of MPs, who are facing violent threats and virulent attacks on social media. Tory politician Mike Freer is standing down after death threats culminated in a suspected arson attack on his office and last week Rishi Sunak condemned
