

Why are so many young men going bald?

My cancer was diagnosed by chance — just like the King's

Do I have to take statins if my GP says so?

After Mail reveals would-be MP attacked 'Jews in the media'...

KEIR IS FORCED TO AXE ISRAEL SLUR CANDIDATE

By Harriet Line
Deputy Political Editor

LABOUR was last night forced to withdraw its support for a by-election candidate after the Mail uncovered more of his anti-Semitic comments.

Azhar Ali, who claimed Israel 'deliberately allowed' Hamas's October 7 massacre of its own people, was suspended from the party pending an investigation.

Yet just hours earlier, Sir Keir Starmer's team had rallied behind the councillor — claiming he had simply fallen for an 'online conspiracy theory' and that it was 'out of character' for him to be anti-Semitic.

Late last night, Labour said it had withdrawn support for the Rochdale by-election candidate 'following new information'.

The Mail had obtained a full audio tape of his comments during a meeting of the Lancashire Labour Party shortly after the October 7 attacks. As well as having told the meeting that Israel allowed the massacre to happen so it could wage war on Gaza, Mr Ali apparently also:

- Blamed 'people in the media from certain Jewish quarters' for fuelling criticism of a pro-Palestinian Labour MP;
- Said Israel planned to 'get rid of [Palestinians] from Gaza' and 'grab' some of the land;
- Boasted about preventing Israeli flags being

Turn to Page 6

A Swift kiss for Taylor's Super Bowl hero

SEE PAGE NINE

