BRITAIN'S MOST DESPICABLE DRINK-DRIVER

Killer: Darryl Anderson was jailed for 17 years

Three times over the limit, he drove into the car in front at 141mph and killed baby Zackary – then told police: ‘Sometimes mistakes happen’

Victim: Zackary Blades was eight-months-old

A DRUNK driver on his phone at 141mph killed a baby in a horror crash, telling police ‘mistakes happen’.

The mother of eight-month-old Zackary Blades yesterday told of the ‘hug I will never forget’ after frantically searching for her son, only to find him 160ft away on the opposite motorway verge.

Little Zack was killed instantly when propelled from his baby seat in the smash, which also claimed the life of his aunt, Karlene Warner, 30.

Zack’s mother, Shalorna Warner, who was driving but miraculously escaped with minor injuries, shouted at passing cars for help before a lorry driver found her baby.

She wiped away tears as she told a court:

‘I knew instantly. I had to pick my dead baby up from the side of the road. I hugged him so tight, a hug I will never forget.’

‘No words will surmount the irreparable hole that has been left in my heart and in my life.’
