

THE REACTION

It's Doctor Who who should shut up, not Kemi Badenoch!

With Sarah Vine & Andrew Pierce

Rishi's furious blast at Starmer...

YOU ARE TAKING PEOPLE FOR FOOLS!

++ Sunak slams Labour leader's 'nonsensical' plans to tackle illegal migration in TV debate ++ Tells voters not to 'surrender' our borders to Keir's party ++ Warns families that their taxes will be 'whacked up'

By Jason Groves
and Harriet Line

RISHI Sunak last night warned voters not to let Labour 'take you for fools' on immigration and tax.

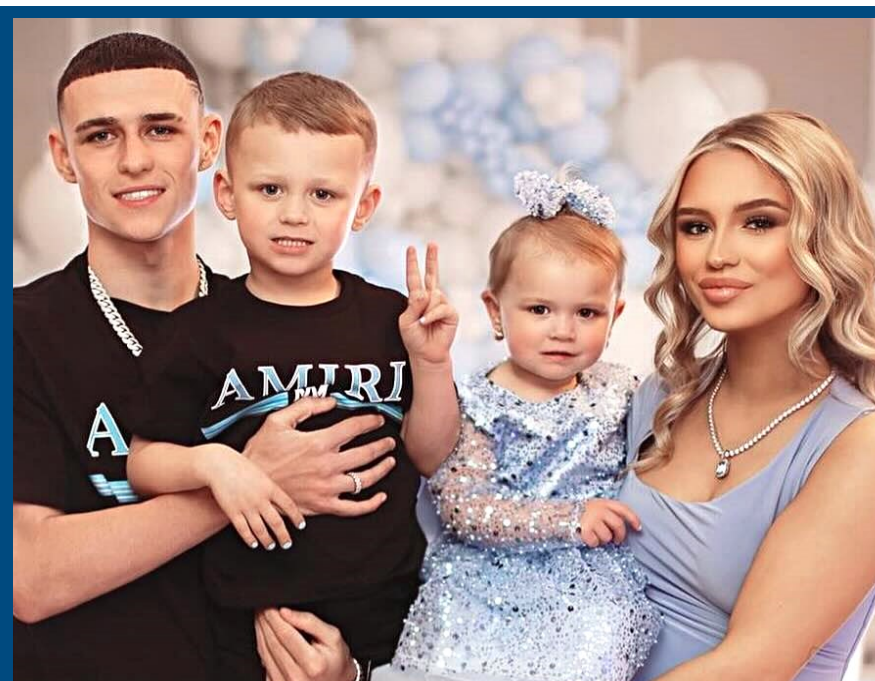

During fiery clashes with Sir Keir Starmer on live TV, the Prime Minister urged people not to let Labour 'surrender our borders'.

Opening a second front, Mr Sunak said Sir Keir was 'not being straight with people' about his tax plans and warned voters not to 'surrender your family finances' to Labour.

The fiercest exchanges came over immigration, with Mr Sunak saying the people-smuggling gangs would 'need a bigger boat' if Labour wins the election.

The PM said Labour would make Britain the 'soft touch of Europe' on immigration by scrapping the Rwanda deportation scheme. And he ridiculed Sir Keir's claim he could clear a backlog of up to 100,000 illegal migrants,

Turn to Page 6

Growing family: Phil Foden and Rebecca Cooke with Ronnie and True

With Slovakia up next, Phil Foden flies home for the birth of his third child

SEE PAGE THREE