

BLACK FRIDAY SALE

Daily

Mail

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 20, 2023

£1 80p to subscribers

Get the Mail on your tablet or mobile for just

£20

*

FOR A WHOLE YEAR!

SEE PAGE
TWO

*New subscribers only. Terms apply, see Mailsubs.co.uk/blackfriday

After economy 'turns the corner', Hunt now weighing up radical plan to cut the rate of income tax or National Insurance

ARE WE FINALLY ON BRINK OF A REAL TAX CUT?

JEREMY Hunt was yesterday weighing up whether to cut income tax or National Insurance, saying 'everything is on the table'.

The Chancellor didn't rule out

By David Churchill
Chief Political Correspondent

a last-minute cut to personal taxes ahead of Wednesday's Autumn Statement, admitting they were 'too high'.

Mr Hunt declared: 'I want to bring down our tax burden.' He and Prime Minister Rishi Sunak are understood to have ruled out changes to inheritance tax or stamp duty after switching their focus to a potential cut in personal taxation.

The pair were buoyed by forecasts from the Office For Budget Responsibility (OBR) on Friday. These showed there is fiscal headroom of up to

Turn to Page 6

Jenna centre stage
at theatre awards

SEE PAGE NINE