

Toned: The Princess of Wales yesterday

How Kate gets those stunning sculpted legs

SEE PAGES 8-9

FOUR PALS WHO WENT CAMPING...

Tragedy: Jevon Hirst, Harvey Owen, Wilf Henderson and Hugo Morris vanished on a trip to the Welsh mountains

AND NEVER CAME HOME

FOUR teenagers may have lain undiscovered in their upturned car for 48 hours after a horror crash in Snowdonia.

A major search was launched when Jevon Hirst, 16, Harvey

By Liz Hull and Nick Fagge

Owen, 17, Wilf Henderson, 17, and Hugo Morris, 18, failed to return from a camping trip.

The hunt ended in tragedy when their Ford Fiesta was spotted on its roof yesterday, partially submerged in a ditch off a remote road almost two days after their last contact. Sources said police were investigating when the crash occurred.

But they suspect it was shortly after the sixth-formers left Harlech on Sunday morning. They crashed around eight miles north, near the village of Garreg. It wasn't until

Turn to Page 6