

DAILY NEWS

NEW YORK'S HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER

THEODORE PARSIGNE FOR NYDN

Bishop Lamor Whitehead

BLING BISHOP ROBBER: HEY, HE'S A CROOK, TOO

LAWYER SEEKS BREAK FOR MAN CONVICTED IN ARMED
RIPOFF AT WHITEHEAD'S BROOKLYN CHURCH - SEE PAGE 3

NO WAY TO GET HER HELP

Ebony Butts (inset), a disturbed woman whose family tried and failed for decades to get mental health care for her, was charged with pushing two female tourists to the tracks in the Delancey St.-Essex St. station on the Lower East Side early Monday.

SEE PAGES 4-5

Suspect's sister tells News how system failed to aid mentally ill woman who shoved 2 tourists on tracks

LUIS C. RIBEIRO FOR NYDN; PROVIDED BY FAMILY