

How to protect yourself against the winter virus QUAD-DEMIC

GOOD HEALTH STARTS PAGE 34

Daily Mail

dailymail.co.uk

TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 26, 2024

£1.10 85p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

NO MORE TAX RISES, INSISTS REEVES

Chancellor defends Budget, but says public sector MUST now live within its means – as CBI boss claims Labour has ‘milked’ business

RACHEL Reeves last night ruled out further tax rises.

In a bid to head off a growing business revolt over her £40 billion ‘tax-bomb’ Budget, the

By Jason Groves and John-Paul Ford Rojas

Chancellor told the CBI conference she was ‘not going to have to come back for more’.

Ms Reeves was heard in stony silence by business chiefs, who say her National Insurance raid will hit jobs, growth and investment.

CBI chairman Rupert Soames said business had been treated as a ‘cash cow’ to be ‘milked’.

The employers’ organisation
Turn to Page 2

Race you! Kate’s Zara collection hits High St

PAGES 2-3