As Kemi vows 'complete opposite' approach to Labour and declares BUSINESS, not government, will lead our revival...

A leader who knows how to get Britain's economy booming!

KEMI Badenoch last night vowed to tell 'hard truths' to her party and the country after being crowned Tory leader.

Creating clear blue water with Labour, she said she would shake up the economy to make it 'fit for the future', and her approach would be 'completely the opposite' of the one taken by Rachel Reeves.

In her first interview as Conservative Party leader yesterday, Mrs Badenoch said she wanted to 'show that the unity is back' in the Tories – and she was 'very optimistic' about what the party can pitch to voters.

She said she would get back to 'telling the truth' by 'talking about the genuine trade-offs that we need to have as a country in order to move forward'.

The new Opposition Leader will today appoint her Shadow Cabinet team – after naming Rebecca Harris as chief whip last night.

Mrs Badenoch said one of her principles will be that 'it is not the Government that creates growth, it's business that creates growth'.

'It's business that creates those real jobs,' she added, saying the party will look at 'how we make life easier for business so they can help grow the economy, so that people can invest,
