

NEW PODCAST LAUNCHES TODAY AT 8AM

THE CROWN: FACT OR FICTION...

FIND IT ON SPOTIFY & APPLE

Our royal experts take a deep dive into hit Netflix show – then reveal the truth

The PM's eyes blazed like hot coals as he thundered...

‘We are a reasonable government, a reasonable country but the British people’s patience can only be stretched so thin’

AT last, ice-blue anger from this Prime Minister.

He's slow to rage, Rishi Sunak, but there was a cold curtness about him yesterday when he gave a news conference about the Supreme Court's latest extraordinary interdiction of the public will.

‘Let me tell everyone now,’ he snarled, ‘I will not allow a foreign court to block these flights.’ He was referring not to the Supreme Court – does being on

QUENTIN LETTS
WITNESSES RISHI'S
VOW THAT FOREIGN
COURTS WON'T STOP
RWANDA FLIGHTS

another planet count as ‘foreign’? – but to judges in Strasbourg, home of the European Court of Human Rights.

They stopped Rwanda flights from leaving British soil.

‘We are a reasonable government, a reasonable country, but the British people’s patience can only be stretched so thin,’ thundered the PM. ‘They expect the boats to be stopped.’

He almost spat the words. Those dark eyes, normally gooey, blazed like two lumps of hot coal. Not that we’re allowed

Turn to Page 6

BLOW FOR STARMER AS 56 MPs REBEL OVER GAZA CEASEFIRE SEE PAGE 10