

Confessions of a SEX ADDICT

FEMAIL MAGAZINE STARTS PAGE 31

REVEALED AFTER FIFTY YEARS

Janet Hewlett-Davies: Brought 'joy' to the PM

Harold Wilson's secret affair with Downing Street
aide 22 years
his junior

SEE PAGE
FIVE

CHINA IS FLOODING BRITAIN WITH FAKE STAMPS

And rogue firms are landing thousands of innocent British victims with £5 penalties

THOUSANDS of fake stamps are entering Britain from China, leaving victims paying £5 penalties to collect their post.

Royal Mail was last night

By Adele Cooke
Money Mail Reporter

urged to investigate what security experts called 'economic warfare', with forgeries from the Far East said to be behind the rise in complaints from customers that stamps bought from legitimate sources are being flagged as counterfeit.

It is understood that convincing copies, sold for as little as 4p each, are being purchased by smaller retailers, who are not obliged to buy directly from the Royal Mail and can instead

Turn to Page 4