LABOUR SAID CUTTING OAP WINTER FUEL CASH COULD KILL 4,000

That's what party's research claimed when Starmer was in Shadow Cabinet — so why IS he forcing it through now?

THOUSANDS of pensioners could die if winter fuel payments are cut, according to Labour's own research. The shocking analysis was published in 2017 – when Sir Keir Starmer sat in the Shadow Cabinet.

It warned that Conservative plans to axe the allowance for ten million elderly voters would increase excess deaths by 3,850 that winter.

And it called Theresa May's proposal, which was later abandoned, the 'single biggest attack on pensioners in a generation in
