bills, at least 829 local authority employees were handed the staggering sum in pay, pensions and payoffs.

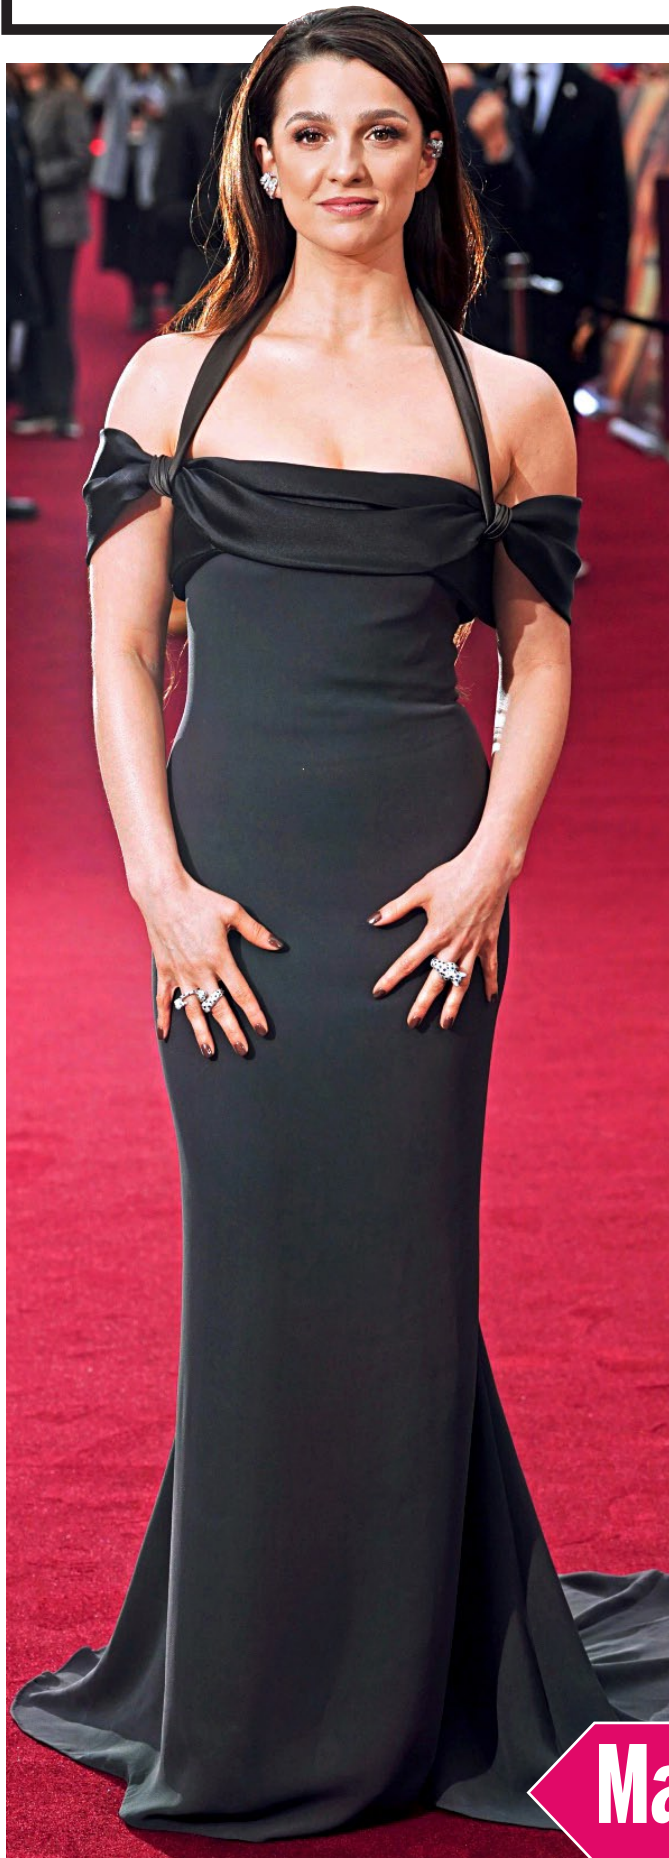

The total for 2023 has risen by 108 staff in a year – the biggest rise on record. It is now at the highest level since the TaxPayers' Alliance launched the 'rich list' in 2007.

The campaign group found 188 council workers had salaries that were higher than the £165,000 a prime minister can claim.
