PUTIN WILL PAY FOR WHAT HE DID TO MY HUSBAND

Navalny widow's rage over 'murder' of Russian opposition leader in Arctic prison

THE widow of Russian activist Alexei Navalny last night vowed that Vladimir Putin 'will answer' for the suspected political assassination.

Yulia Navalnaya bravely

spoke out to condemn the regime just hours after it was announced her husband had died in the Arctic penal colony where he was imprisoned on trumped-up charges.

Prison authorities claimed that

47-year-old Mr Navalny – the Kremlin's most vocal critic – 'fell ill' after a walk yesterday and 'almost immediately lost consciousness' before dying.

But his mother said he had been 'healthy and cheerful' when she visited him just four days earlier,
