A CROSSBOW-wielding ex-soldier – suspected of brutally murdering his ex-girlfriend, her sister and their mother – was captured yesterday after a 20-hour manhunt.

Kyle Clifford, 26, was found cowering in a cemetery with self-inflicted wounds hours after being named as the suspect at the centre of the horrifying triple murder.

He was under guard in hospital last night as police waited to question him about the murders of Carol Hunt, 61, and her two daughters Hannah, 28, and Louise, 25.

The three – the wife and daughters of BBC 5 Live horse racing commentator John Hunt – are believed to have been tied up in their home and shot in a bloody rampage described as 'incomprehensible evil'.

Police were called after neighbours
