

Alec Baldwin faces court at last

Jan Moir reports

SEE PAGE 19

Putin bombs children's cancer hospital

Lethal blast: A girl is comforted outside Kyiv's Okhmatdyt hospital

Innocent: Young patients after yesterday's Russian missile strike

As Keir Starmer and Western leaders gather for military summit...

Atrocity that shows why Britain and Nato MUST spend more on defence

Daily Mail CAMPAIGN
DON'T LEAVE
 BRITAIN
 DEFENCELESS

SIR Keir Starmer was under pressure on defence last night after Russia's sickening attack on a children's hospital in Kyiv.

Vladimir Putin faced global condemnation following the deadly

By Jason Groves and Mark Nicol

missile strike on the Okhmatdyt hospital, which specialises in treating child cancer victims.

The murderous attack sends a chilling message to Nato leaders gathering in Washington today for a summit to mark the military alliance's 75th anniversary. It will also amplify Ukraine's demands for more air defence weapons to defend its skies.

Sir Keir, who flies to the US capital this evening, was told to 'put his money where his mouth is' on defence. He was urged to respond to Moscow's

Turn to Page 6