

BABY REINDEER

WHAT'S TRUE, WHAT'S EMBELLISHED – AND
WHAT'S PURE FICTION

SEE PAGES 20-21

Gentle: Daniel Anjorin failed to hear warnings

'A true scholar'.
Daniel, 14, killed in sword attack was teacher's son

SEE PAGES 7-9

First migrants handcuffed and detained in dramatic raids ++ 800 officers launch 'Operation Vector' ++ But, surprise, civil servants launch new legal bid to stop flights

DAY THAT RWANDA BECAME A REALITY

THE first migrants earmarked for removal to Rwanda were detained yesterday.

The dramatic immigration raids were a major boost for Rishi Sunak as millions of

By David Barrett
Home Affairs Editor

voters head to the polls in today's local elections.

It was the first concrete sign that the £500million Rwanda scheme could finally take off after years in limbo. Images showed handcuffed migrants being placed in prison-style vans following an undisclosed number of arrests nationwide. Further operations are planned.

But last night the latest in a long line of legal challenges was

Turn to Page 4