HOW COULD GREENS NOT KNOW ABOUT VILE RANT OVER RABBI?

Party leader claims ignorance about councillor in anti-Semitism row... despite Mail exposé months ago

THE Greens were last night facing fury over their failure to suspend a councillor who launched a hate-filled tirade against a rabbi.

chaplain, Zecharia Deutsch, a 'creep', a 'low-life' and an 'animal'.

The 42-year-old had been allowed to stand for the Greens despite branding Israelis 'white supremacists' after the Hamas Palestinian terror group killed 1,200 people on October 7 last year. He was filmed shouting 'We will raise the voice of Palestine – Allahu Akbar!' after winning his council seat.

Yesterday the party faced a string of calls to take action against him, including from Jewish leaders who accused it of hypocrisy for not distancing itself from his 'extremist nonsense'. Back in February Daily Mail feature writer Guy
