

DAILY NEWS

NEW YORK'S HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER

OFF THE HOOK

Ex-President Donald Trump kicked off the first day of the Republican National Convention in Milwaukee Monday by naming Ohio Sen. J.D. Vance (inset) as his pick for vice president. The announcement came after Florida Federal Judge Aileen Cannon dismissed the classified documents case against him.

SEE PAGES 4-8

- Judge dismisses documents case against Trump
- J.D. Vance announced as VP candidate
- Assassination probe explores shooter, motive