allegations of police brutality and racism. It comes as concerns grow that the officers involved may have to go into hiding amid protests and fears of intimidation.

Senior police sources concede that one of the officers – who kicked 19-year-old Fahir Muhammed Amas in the head – appears to have lost control. However, they insist that the full picture is far more complicated than has been portrayed.

‘All three of the officers have been violently attacked,’ a well-connected source told the MoS this weekend. Sources believe
