Neighbour who called Labour deputy a f liar talks to police as we reveal she signed key papers in two-homes row

HOUSE SALE DOCUMENT THAT COULD NAIL RAYNER

BELEAGUERED Angela Rayner's attempts to ride out her two-homes row were dealt a significant blow last night after the emergence of a key document signed by her former neighbour.

Sylvia Hampson, who has previously called the Labour Deputy Leader a

'f liar' for insisting that she lived apart from her then husband, which might have enabled her to avoid paying a capital gains tax bill, has confirmed that she was a legal witness to the sale of Ms Rayner's home.

Ms Rayner asked Mrs Hampson to sign the document, unearthed by The Mail on Sunday, for what she claimed was her 'principal property' – even though her neighbour lived a mile away, next door to
