

The cruel moped scam targeting mothers and lone women drivers

SEE PAGES
20-21

LABOUR'S RED REVOLUTION

++ Extra power for the unions ++ Rights to work from home ++ Anti-strike law scrapped ++ More diversity monitoring

HOW WILL THESE NEW BURDENS ON FIRMS HELP GROWTH?

LABOUR'S workers' rights revolution will cost jobs and choke growth, ministers were warned last night.

Sir Keir Starmer said he

By Harriet Line and John-Paul Ford Rojas

wanted to 'unlock growth and take the brakes off Britain'.

But the Prime Minister was warned that a radical package of employment rights championed by his deputy Angela Rayner could have the opposite effect.

Unveiled in Labour's first legislative programme for 14 years, the new French-style laws will give employees a string of rights from their first day in the job,

Turn to Page 2

Plans: Angela Rayner in Downing Street yesterday