

ROYAL EXCLUSIVE

Secret summits over making Charles regent in Queen's last years

...and more revelations from the book that everyone's talking about

SEE PAGES 4 & 18 to 21

As MoS identifies Jamaican thug, the Home Secretary berates plane mutiny 'do-gooders' who thwarted his removal

FARCE OF GANGSTER GUNMAN WE CAN'T DEPORT

A GUN-TOTING Jamaican gangster who opened fire on a busy street in broad daylight dodged deportation after a mutiny by airline passengers, The Mail on Sunday can reveal.

This newspaper first reported the revolt on a British Airways flight at Gatwick in November, but the Home Office refused to disclose the identity

EXCLUSIVE

By Mark Hookham and David Barrett

of the criminal involved or detail his convictions. However, the MoS can today reveal he is 27-year-old gangster Lawrence Morgan, whose appalling criminal record includes two serious gun crimes and a host of hard-drugs convictions.

Last night, Home Secretary James Cleverly furiously lambasted 'do-gooders' who attempt to block the deportation of foreign criminals. 'The vast majority of the British people

Turn to Page 6 >>