

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

EXCLUSIVE: Archbishop of Canterbury's dramatic intervention on assisted dying in today's Mail

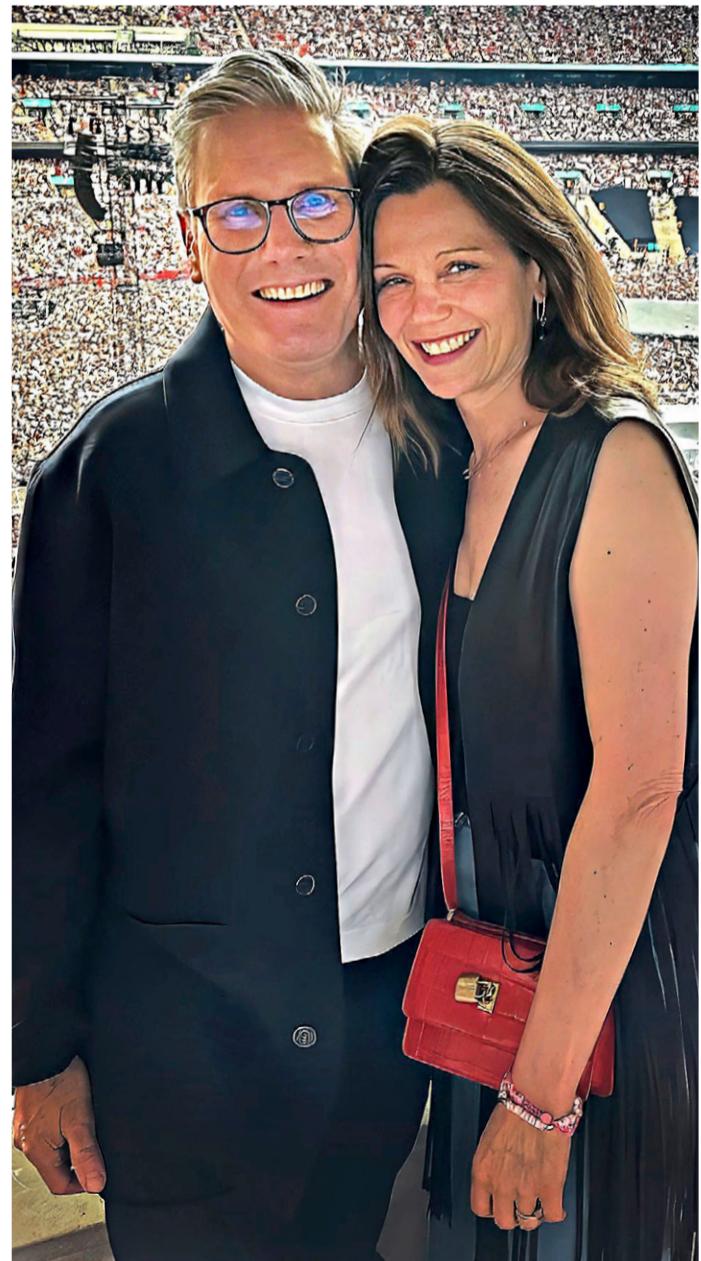

'The right to die could become a duty to die'

SEE PAGE 5

TAYLORGATE: THE SCANDAL DEEPENS

Starmer and his family not only attended concert AFTER his ministers 'pressured' Met into blue-light escort - but were granted a private audience with pop star and her mother

Freebie: Sir Keir and his wife at Taylor Swift show in June

NOW PM IS ENGULFED BY SWIFT FURORE

SIR Keir Starmer met Taylor Swift after police were 'pressured' into giving her a blue-light escort.

The Prime Minister's role in

By Martin Beckford
Policy Editor

the 'Taylorgate' row deepened last night as it emerged he and his family were introduced to the US pop star.

Sir Keir had a ten-minute chat with Ms Swift and her mother backstage after accepting four free tickets to her sellout Eras tour in August.

It has sparked further calls for an investigation into how much 'political influence' his ministers

Turn to Page 4