

Why this winter's flu has been so awful... and next year could be even worse

GOOD HEALTH: PAGE 37

Daily Mail

dailymail.co.uk

TUESDAY, MARCH 4, 2025

£1.10 85p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

NEW WHITE HOUSE INSULT

TRUMP: I WON'T PUT UP WITH ZELENSKY FOR MUCH LONGER

Fresh salvo as President considers ending Ukraine aid

By Jason Groves
Political Editor

HOPES of a Ukraine peace deal were on the brink last night after Donald Trump warned he would 'not put up with' Volodymyr Zelensky for much longer.

In his latest diplomatic hand grenade, the US President hinted he could pull the plug on funding for Kyiv altogether after his angry clash with the Ukrainian president.

He then turned his fire on European countries – including the UK – over their demands for America to provide a security 'backstop' if a peace deal is agreed.

His comments came hours after Sir Keir Starmer told MPs that he would not send British troops to keep the peace in Ukraine unless the US provides security guarantees.

The PM agreed it would be 'utter folly' to send British forces into harm's way without American support.

He added: 'That's why I'm working so hard on security guarantees that are worthy of the name. That is a forward-leaning European

As Meghan's new Netflix series starts, the striking similarities to Pammy's show

Turn to Page 6

SEE PAGE 11