

My secret to feeling happy and confident in my 50s – deciding to come off HRT

SARAH VINE PAGE 15

REEVES ROCKED BY JOBS SLUMP

RACHEL Reeves has been hit by a jobs slump as she prepares to take a gamble on the nation's finances with a giant spending spree.

By Jason Groves
and John-Paul Ford Rojas

In a blow that makes a mockery of the Chancellor's claim to have 'fixed the foundations' of the economy, official figures showed a quarter of a million jobs have gone since her tax-raising Budget last year.

Experts said it was a 'painful lesson in basic economics' for Ms Reeves after she ignored warnings and levied a £25 billion 'jobs tax' on National Insurance. The Chancellor

Turn to Page 6

REVEALED: The single word that spelt the end for Meghan & Harry in the eyes of the Queen