

IS THAT IT!

ANDREW NEIL says Labour's blown a once-in-a-generation chance to slash Britain's bloated welfare bill

SEE PAGE 16

TEEN PLOTTED 'BIGGEST GUN MASSACRE OF THE CENTURY'

Triple killer targeted primary school

A TEENAGER who wanted to be 'the most famous killer in history' shot dead his family then set out to carry out

By Rebecca Camber
Crime and Security Editor

a gun attack at his old primary school.

Nicholas Prosper, 18, exploited a terrifying loophole in gun laws to buy a shotgun and 100 cartridges using a fake firearms licence he made himself.

His chilling mission to commit 'the biggest massacre in the 21st century' came just a day after he bought

Turn to Page 7

The six MUST-BUYS from M&S's new range everyone's in love with

SEE PAGES 26-27