STARMER'S 'REWARD FOR HAMAS'

Israel and U.S. hit out at Labour plan to recognise Palestine as Kemi accuses PM
of 'political posturing at its very worst'

ISRAEL accused Keir Starmer of rewarding Hamas's 'monstrous terrorism' last night after the Prime Minister bowed to Labour pressure to recognise

a Palestinian state.

Benjamin Netanyahu furiously rejected his ultimatum to make peace with Hamas, the terror group behind the atrocities of October 7, 2023.

In a major diplomatic shift, Sir Keir said the Government will recognise Palestine within weeks unless Israel ends the war in Gaza and agrees to drop its opposition
