UAE saves Gaza's health sector

Through Operation Chivalrous Knight 3, UAE sustains health services in the Strip

ABU DHABI

The UAE, through its humanitarian efforts and relief aid under Operation Chivalrous Knight 3, has managed to keep the Gaza Strip's health sector operational, averting total collapse and ensuring continued medical services for the Palestinian people. The UAE demonstrated utmost readiness and high professionalism, evident through its presence on the ground via the Emirati field hospital inside the Strip, the floating hospital deployed to Egypt's Al Arish city, the transfer of critical and severe cases to UAE hospitals for treatment, and the dispatch of various medical aid and supplies to enhance Gaza's health sector capabilities.

51,000 cases treated

Since its inauguration in December 2023, the Emirati integrated field hospital in Gaza has continued to provide treatment services to the people of Gaza through specialised and qualified cadres in various medical fields, supported by medical volunteers. By April 2025, the number of cases treated at the hospital exceeded 51,000, including critical injuries and complex surgical operations.

In February 2024, the UAE dispatched an integrated floating hospital off the coast of Al Arish to provide medical support to Palestinians. By April 2025, the hospital had treated nearly 10,370 cases. In addition to on-the-ground support, the UAE has facilitated the transfer of critical patients to its hospitals. By May 14, a total of 2,634 patients and family members had arrived in the UAE. — WAM

Trump: Tariffs making US 'great & rich'

BRAZIL HIT WITH 50%; CANADA WARNED OF BAD DEAL OVER PALESTINE SUPPORT

WASHINGTON

US President Donald Trump said yesterday that the sweeping tariffs he has imposed on nations around the world were making the country "great & rich again" as governments raced to strike deals with Washington less than 24 hours before an August 1 deadline.

"Tariffs are making America great & rich again," he wrote on his Truth Social platform.

"One year ago, America was a dead country. Now it is the 'hot-test' country anywhere in the world," he added.

A day earlier, the US President imposed new tariffs to punish or favour several major trading partners — the latest round of sweeping measures that have roiled markets around the world.

South Korea spared

South Korea squeezed in at the last moment, securing agreement on a 15 per cent tariff for exports to the United States — significantly below the 25 per cent that Trump had earlier threatened to introduce.

But Trump also announced crippling 50 per cent tariffs on Brazil and a 25 per cent levy on Indian exports, while warning Canada it would face trade repercussions for planning to recognise a Palestinian state.

LESS PUNISHING

So far, Britain, Vietnam, Japan, Indonesia, the Philippines, the EU and South Korea have reached initial deals with Washington to secure less punishing conditions.

While the United States and China earlier slapped escalating tariffs on each other's products, both sides are working to further a truce maintaining duties at lower levels.

— Washington's key security ally — was equivalent to levies determined from US trade deals with Japan and the European Union.

Trump hit Brazil with high tariffs as well as sanctions against the judge overseeing a trial of his far-right ally Jair Bolsonaro, who is accused of attempting a coup in Latin America's biggest economy.

Canada's trade relations with the United States also came under threat after Prime Minister Mark Carney announced plans to recognise a Palestinian state at the UN General Assembly in September. "Wow! Canada has just announced that it is backing statehood for Palestine," the US president wrote on his Truth Social platform. "That will make it very hard for us to make a trade deal with them."
