'Edge of Life' campaign in UAE raises Dh2.8 billion

DUBAI
Gulf News Report

More than Dh2.8 billion has been raised through the UAE's "Edge of Life" humanitarian campaign, His Highness Sheikh Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum, Vice-President and Prime Minister of the UAE and Ruler of Dubai, announced yesterday, marking the conclusion of one of the country's largest Ramadan charity drives.

The campaign, launched during the fasting month, aimed to help save five million children at risk of death from hunger and prevent a further 30 million from falling into severe malnutrition that could prove fatal.

In a post on X, Sheikh Mohammed said the total amount was secured through the support of individuals, institutions, humanitarian organisations and major donors, with around 44,000 contributors taking part over the course of Ramadan. "With the conclusion of the holy month, we conclude the 'Edge of Life' campaign," he said, noting that the initiative reflects the UAE's deeply embedded humanitarian values and global relief efforts.

Thanking donors

Sheikh Mohammed thanked donors and humanitarian partners for their contributions, stressing that the UAE's charitable work is not seasonal but represents a consistent national approach rooted in the country's founding principles.

Sheikh Mohammed also emphasised that the UAE's humanitarian efforts will continue regardless of circumstances, adding that charity and global aid will remain a fundamental pillar of the country's development model. Sheikh Mohammed concluded his message by praying for the acceptance of good deeds during the holy month and reaffirming the country's continued commitment to supporting vulnerable communities worldwide.

THOUSANDS GATHER FOR LAYLAT AL QADR PRAYERS

Thousands of worshippers gathered in prayer at the Sheikh Zayed Grand Mosque in Abu Dhabi on Sunday night to observe Laylat Al Qadr, also known as the Night of Power, one of the most significant nights in the Islamic calendar. The night falls during the last ten days of Ramadan and holds deep spiritual importance, marked by special prayers, reflection and seeking divine blessings. Laylat Al Qadr is believed to be the night when the Holy Quran was first revealed to Prophet Muhammad (PBUH).

UAE, SAUDI LEADERS SAY BLATANT IRANIAN ATTACKS A VIOLATION OF SOVEREIGN RIGHTS

President, Saudi Crown Prince call for de-escalation

ABU DHABI

Gulf News Report

President His Highness Sheikh Mohamed Bin Zayed Al Nahyan yesterday received a telephone call from Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed Bin Salman, during which they discussed regional developments amid escalating military actions and their grave threats to regional and global security and stability.

The call also addressed the continued and blatant Iranian attacks targeting countries in the region, noting their violation of sovereign rights of these countries and international norms.

Both sides stressed the need for the immediate cessation of military escalation, which poses a threat to stability and security in the region and the world at large, underscoring the importance of prioritising serious dialogue and diplomatic means in addressing the issues of the region in a manner that preserves regional security and peace.

BRITONS PRAISE UAE LEADERSHIP, STABILITY

Business leaders based in the UAE say the reality on the ground looks very different from what some international coverage of the current geopolitical tensions in the Middle East is showing. Some coverage has suggested a wave of departures from the UAE and portrayed the situation in dramatic terms, including AI-generated videos circulating online depicting war-like conditions in Dubai.

But, according to the British Chamber of Commerce Dubai, the response from the British business community has been calm and measured rather than reactive. Many entrepreneurs who have built businesses in the country over the past decade say they are familiar with how the UAE's leadership approaches complex situations.

Sheikh Mohamed also received a phone call from Mohammed Shia' Al Sudani, Prime Minister of Iraq. During the call, the Iraqi Prime Minister condemned the treacherous terrorist attack that targeted the UAE Consulate General in the Kurdistan Region of Iraq for the second time within a week, stressing that it constitutes a serious violation of international norms and conventions that guarantee the full protection of diplomatic missions and their premises.

Sheikh Mohamed earlier received a phone call from King Felipe VI of Spain, who condemned the blatant Iranian attacks that continue to target the UAE and several countries in the region. King Felipe VI also affirmed Spain's solidarity with the UAE in all measures it takes to safeguard its sovereignty and security and ensure the safety of its territory.

Meanwhile, Dr Anwar Gargash, diplomatic adviser to the UAE President, has praised the country's resilience, saying recent attacks would not undermine national unity or stability.

In a post on X, Gargash said he was not surprised by the UAE's steadfastness, citing the strength of its leadership, the loyalty of its people and the support of residents.

Palestinian killed

Yesterday, Abu Dhabi authorities said a missile fell on a civilian vehicle in Al Bahyah, killing one Palestinian national.

In Fujairah, civil defence teams responded to a fire in the Oil Industries Zone with no injuries reported, after a separate drone strike and fire there over the weekend. The Umm Al Quwain authorities also confirmed a drone strike on a building that caused a fire, though no injuries were reported. UAE air defences dealt with 6 ballistic missiles and 21 drones coming from Iran.

Emirates, flydubai restart flights after brief DXB disruption

Drone incident disrupts flights; airlines resume limited services

DUBAI
BY DHANUSHA GOKULAN
Chief Reporter

Flights across the UAE are gradually resuming after a disruption early yesterday near Dubai International Airport (DXB). The Dubai Civil Aviation Authority announced the gradual resumption of some flights to and from DXB to selected destinations following a temporary suspension implemented as a precautionary measure.

Passengers have been advised to check with their airlines for the latest updates before travelling to the airport. Dubai Airports also confirmed that some flights were diverted from DXB to Al Maktoum International Airport (DWC). Early yesterday morning, the Dubai Media Office reported a drone incident in the vicinity of Dubai International Airport.

Fuel tank affected

According to the statement, the incident affected one of the airport's fuel tanks. Dubai Civil Defence said the incident was contained with no spread of fire.

Dubai Airports issued a travel advisory urging flyers not to proceed to DXB unless their airline confirms their departure time. Travellers have been urged to stay in touch with airlines for updates.

Emirates resumed regular operations yesterday evening, following a temporary suspension earlier in the day. The airline said it will continue to operate a limited schedule, with some flights cancelled. Emirates passengers can amend bookings or rebook flights online within 72 hours of their original departure date.

flydubai said it will gradually resume flight operations with a reduced schedule, after the earlier halt disrupted several services. The airline confirmed that affected passengers are being contacted. Air Arabia said it has started operating a limited number of flights, subject to operational and regulatory approvals.
