

Far from Andrew being freed from Virginia's shadow, her death now binds them more tightly than ever

RICHARD KAY

SEE PAGE 11

SO MUCH FOR A BONFIRE OF THE QUANGOS!

Figures show at least 300 bosses earn more than PM

1,500 in public bodies take home over £100,000

Labour under pressure to cut back bloated state

HUNDREDS of fat-cat public officials were paid more than the Prime Minister last year – sparking calls for Labour to speed up its promised ‘bonfire of the quangos’.

More than 300 quango bosses received a higher taxpayer-paid salary than the £172,153 Keir Starmer is entitled to. And almost

By Martin Beckford
Policy Editor

1,500 staff in publicly owned bodies received more than £100,000 in pay and perks last year, according to research published today.

As taxpayers were forced to tighten their belts amid economic turmoil, some executives in public organisations were handed five-figure bonuses.

Sir Keir has pledged to shrink

Turn to Page 6

Everything is rosy for Meghan's little redhead Lilibet

SEE PAGE 13

Hello, petal! A picture posted online by Meghan yesterday