WOKE RAF IS RUNNING OUT OF TOP GUN PILOTS

Unlawful diversity drive jeopardises PM's pledge to put jets 'in sky over Ukraine'

Why ITV can no longer bet on 'busy' Holly

Air Force frantically tries to fill cockpits with combat-ready flyers, the Mail can reveal.

The plea follows a controversial drive by top brass to prioritise the recruitment of women and ethnic minorities, which was found to be unlawful. And it comes as Sir Keir

Starmer pledged to put 'jets in the sky' to protect Ukraine as part of a post-conflict stabilisation force to be confirmed this week.

The need for pilots has become so pressing that air chiefs are actively encouraging older candidates, who have some level of flight experience, to sign up. It has been reported that the RAF is suffering
