

MEGHAN'S MAKE-OR-BREAK TV REBRAND

JAN MOIR:
Entry level hosting for people who need a recipe for ice cubes

PAGES 2-3

REVEALED:
Her 'stealth wealth' wardrobe
that's worth £130,000

PAGES 18-19

ZELENSKY'S OLIVE BRANCH TO TRUMP AFTER PM'S PLEA

Ukraine's leader 'on brink' of signing minerals deal with U.S.

VOLODYMYR Zelensky last night offered an olive branch to Donald Trump.

In a conciliatory message after the White House announced a freeze on military aid to Kyiv, the

By Jason Groves
and Mark Nicol

Ukrainian leader said he 'really valued' the US's support and was 'ready to work under President Trump's strong leadership to get a peace that lasts'. It came shortly after a phone call with Keir Starmer in which the Prime Minister warned him he had to rebuild relations with the US to save his country.

Mr Zelensky - who is said to be poised to sign a minerals deal with the US - described last week's astonishing Oval Office bust-up with Mr Trump as 'regrettable'.

And he revealed leaders are working on a peace deal that could begin with 'a truce in the sky... and truce in the sea

Turn to Page 6