

The TRUTH about online dating as a 50-something widow

INSPIRE: STARTS ON PAGE 23

Daily Mail

dailymail.co.uk

£1.10 85p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

MONDAY, MARCH 3, 2025

FALLOUT FROM OVAL OFFICE BUST-UP

THE KING'S SHOW OF SOLIDARITY

■ Monarch meets Zelensky just 48 hours after his row with Trump

■ Starmer says Europe MUST do 'heavy lifting' in new peace plan

■ PM vows to build 'coalition of the willing' to win over US leader

THE King last night threw a protective arm around Volodymyr Zelensky as world leaders scrambled to help him rebuild his shattered relationship with Donald Trump.

In a pointed show of support, Charles invited the Ukrainian president to Sandringham for a private audience just 48 hours after Presi-

By Jason Groves
and Rebecca English

dent Trump's meltdown in the Oval Office horrified Western allies and delighted Vladimir Putin.

The act of solidarity by the King, who Mr Trump described last week as a 'beautiful man', came as world leaders launched a frantic diplomatic push to patch up the cracks in Western unity over Ukraine.

The meeting in Norfolk, which came
Turn to Page 4

Royal welcome: Charles with Volodymyr Zelensky yesterday