

Why the Duchess of Privacy is suddenly sharing a video of herself twerking in the maternity suite
by SARAH VINE

BATTLE LINES DRAWN OVER IMMIGRATION

KEIR planning legal crackdown on migrants exploiting 'right to family life' to avoid deportation

TOUGH proposals on immigration are set to be unveiled by both Labour and the Conservatives.

Labour is planning to bring in

By David Barrett and Jason Groves

laws curtailing use of the European Human Rights Convention by foreign criminals.

Meanwhile, Tory leader Kemi Baden-

KEMI pledges to revive Rwanda style scheme – and ban illegal arrivals from claiming asylum och will tomorrow unveil plans to revive a Rwanda-style deportation scheme – and she will vow to withdraw Britain from any international treaties that stand in the way of it.

Under the Government proposal, Home Secretary Yvette Cooper is drawing up legislation to make it easier to deport overseas offenders as well as failed asylum seekers, the Daily Mail can reveal. A new Bill will contain measures designed to restrict the use of the 'right to private and family life'

Turn to Page 4