

The drumbeat of doubts over Lucy Letby's conviction has grown so loud that justice now demands an urgent resolution – one way or the other

PAGE
16

Daily Mail

MONDAY, JUNE 16, 2025

dailymail.co.uk

£1.20 90p to subscribers

SCAN TO SUBSCRIBE
AND SAVE

STARMER IN FULL RETREAT OVER GROOMING GANGS

After inquiry U-turn now he orders probe by 'Britain's FBI'

By Jason Groves Political Editor

KEIR Starmer was in full retreat over grooming gangs last night as he called in 'Britain's FBI' to investigate.

The Prime Minister was scrambling to appear decisive after resisting action on the scandal for months.

Sir Keir had accused those campaigning for a public inquiry into the rape and sexual abuse of thousands of girls by gangs of mainly Pakistani-heritage men of jumping on a 'far-Right bandwagon'.

But in a dramatic U-turn at the weekend, he finally admitted a national inquiry was needed. And last night, the Home Office announced an investigation by the National Crime Agency.

Home Secretary Yvette Cooper said the

Father's Day olive branch to Brooklyn from David

SEE PAGE 11

Happier: Snap of pair posted by the Beckhams yesterday

Turn to Page 4