Amid outrage over US President's humiliation of Zelensky - and as King hosts Ukraine leader at Sandringham today - MPs and top brass demand:

NOW STOP THE STATE VISIT FOR 'BULLY' TRUMP

EXCLUSIVE

By Glen Owen and Brendan Carlin

DONALD Trump's state visit to Britain should be shelved in the wake of his astonishing White House tirade against President Zelensky, a series of prominent public figures declared last night.

The extraordinary shouting match - when President Trump and Vice-President JD Vance ganged up against Ukraine's leader to accuse him of 'gambling with World War Three' - came just hours after Sir Keir Starmer invited Mr Trump for an unprecedented second ceremonial visit to the UK on behalf of King Charles.

Politicians and military leaders called for the arrangements to be put on hold until Mr Trump has made assurances about Ukraine's security in the face of Russia's aggression, with royal experts warning that a visit now risked
