

DAILY NEWS

NEW YORK'S HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER

Dhruvan Gopi (right) looks much like any other toddler, now. But soon after being born last year he was only hours from death. He was saved by an incredibly rare transplant led by Dr. Sander Florman (l.) at Mount Sinai Hospital. Dr. Courtney Juliano was key to pre- and post-surgery care.

A LITTLE MIRACLE

Rare liver transplant gives baby a fighting chance to live

SEE PAGES 4-5