New major project to ease traffic in Dubai

DUBAI
BY ASHFAQ AHMED
Senior Assistant Editor

A new east-west corridor in Dubai will enhance connectivity between major roads and ease traffic flow across key residential and commercial zones.

This will be accomplished through the Dh1.5 billion Al Fay Street Development Project, announced yesterday by the Roads and Transport Authority (RTA).

The project starts from Al Fay Street's intersection with Shaikh Mohammad Bin Zayed Road, through Shaikh Zayed Bin Hamdan Al Nahyan Street, to Emirates Road. The development will include the construction of five intersections, bridges and almost 13km of roads.

The upcoming corridor will serve numerous residential and developmental areas, including Dubai Sports City, Jumeirah Village Circle, Dubai Production City, Jumeirah Golf Estates, Tilal Al Ghaf, DAMAC Lagoons, The Oasis, and Remraam.

It will establish a direct route from Al Khail Road to Emirates Road and ensure efficient movement between Shaikh Mohammad Bin Zayed Road and Emirates Road.

Aid trucks in Gaza, 3 hostages freed as ceasefire takes effect

THOUSANDS OF PALESTINIANS RETURN TO RUBBLE AND DESTROYED BUILDINGS

GAZA STRIP

The first three Israeli hostages were released yesterday under a long-awaited Gaza truce aimed at ending more than 15 months of war that has ravaged the Palestinian territory.

As the ceasefire took effect in the morning, thousands of displaced, war-weary Palestinians set off across the devastated Gaza Strip to return home.

In the northern area of Jabalia, hundreds streamed down a sandy path, heading back to an apocalyptic landscape piled with rubble and destroyed buildings.

Home in ruins

"We are finally in our home. There is no home left, just rubble, but it's our home," said Rana Mohsen, 43, back in Jabalia.

An initial 42-day truce brokered by Qatari, US and Egyptian mediators is meant to enable a surge of sorely needed humanitarian aid into Gaza, as a total of 33 Israeli hostages are to be released in exchange for around 1,900 Palestinians in Israeli custody.

The Israeli military said the first three hostages, all women, "crossed the border into Israeli territory" in the afternoon.

Dozens of Palestinian prisoners were due to be released by Israel in exchange later yesterday.

Aid arrives

Minutes after the truce began, the United Nations said the first trucks carrying sorely needed humanitarian aid had entered the Palestinian territory.

UN Secretary-General Antonio Guterres welcomed the truce, saying on X "it is imperative that this ceasefire removes the significant security and political obstacles to delivering aid".

The truce is intended to pave the way for a permanent end to the war, but a second phase has yet to be finalised.

It came into effect nearly three hours later than scheduled. During the delay, Israel's military said it was continuing to operate, with the territory's civil defence agency reporting 19 people killed and 25 wounded in bombardments.

Thousands of Palestinians carrying tents, clothes and their personal belongings were seen going home yesterday.

Returning Jabalia resident Walid Abu Jiab said he had found "massive, unprecedented destruction", with "nothing left" in Gaza's war-battered north.

In Rafah, Ahmad Al Balawi said that "as soon as I returned... I felt a shock." "Entire areas have been completely wiped out," he said.

Salik to start variable toll rates from Jan 31

Charges will be Dh6 during peak hours: 6am to 10am and 4pm to 8pm

DUBAI
BY DHANUSHA GOKULAN
Chief Reporter

Dubai's Salik will launch its variable road toll pricing from January 31, the company announced on Friday.

On weekdays, Salik toll charges will be Dh6 during peak hours: 6am to 10am in the morning and 4pm to 8pm in the evening.

During off-peak hours, 10am to 4pm and 8pm to 1am, the toll will drop to Dh4. On Sundays, excluding public holidays, special occasions, or major events, the toll will remain Dh4 all day and will be free from 1am to 6am.

Ramadan rates

Salik has also listed its variable pricing timings and rates for the Holy month of Ramadan.

On normal days, Salik will be priced at Dh6 from 9am to 5pm. Off-peak hours rates will drop down to Dh4 from 7am to 9am, and from 5pm to 2am.

During Sundays, with the exception for public holidays and events, the peak hours (9am to 5pm) as well as the off-peak hours (7am to 9am, and from 5pm to 2am) are priced at Dh4.

Tariff will not be charged past midnight – from 2am to 7am during weekends and weekdays.

The Roads and Transport Authority (RTA) announced plans for variable road toll pricing and variable parking tariff policies in November last year.

These initiatives also included event-specific parking tariffs aimed at improving traffic flow in Dubai.

On Sundays, excluding public holidays, special occasions, or major events, the toll will remain Dh4 all day and will be free from 1am to 6am.
